PHILADELPHIA HAS 25,875 CHILD TOILERS

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — Approximately 25,875 children under 16 years of age are at work in stores, factories and other commercial establishments here. This is shown by the report of a statistical investigation conducted by the bureau of compulsory education. Of the 25,875 little workers, 11,718 are girls.

The report shows that these children left school in various grades, but that the greater number terminated their education in the sixth grade. Under the compulsory education law, children cannot obtain employment in Pennsylvania until they have attained the 14th birthday, but street trades, such as selling newspapers and shining shoes, are excepted.
